ENGAGING DISCUSSION

This community event is for men who are interested in joining the conversation to engage men and boys to help find solutions to prevent violence against women in our community.

Community members have the power to assist changing attitudes and influence healthy relationship decisions that reduce the risk of violence.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

TUVAL NAFSHI

Community Developer (ACWS)

Listen as Tuval shares his knowledge on different aspects of gender-based violence, engaging you to become leaders of change in our community and learn about the opportunities to become involved in preventing violence against women.
